Plot Vidyut (Ajay Devgn) is a genius scientist who is working in a lab somewhere in India. He lives in an old-fashioned house with his grandmother. He is a very lovable person, and he is close to his grandmother. Once he wakes up in the middle of the night to meet her, and finds her missing from home. She could not have walked out, so he had no choice but to go out to look for her. He comes to know that his lab is on fire, and he finds his lab equipments damaged in the fire. He also finds a blue box with seven discs, which was missing from the lab. Vidyut realizes that the box belongs to somebody, and he also gets a glimpse of the identity of the person. He gets into an accident and loses his memory. He is taken to a hospital where he is attended to by Dr. Gaitonde (Ravi Kishan), a woman doctor. She tries to find out who he is, and who his relatives are. She also tells Vidyut that he has five days to prove who he is and to recover his memory. As he recovers his memory, he goes to find his grandmother. He arrives at his grandmother's house, and finds it locked. He then goes to meet a neighbor, who tells him that his grandmother has passed away many years ago. He then goes to the house where he used to live with his grandmother and her other children. He finds out that his family was killed by the same thieves who stole his lab equipments and the blue box. He asks the neighbor to open the 82157476af
